Weak compactness of some sets of quasi-measures

Zbigniew Lipecki

Polish Academy of Sciences, Poland

We give a criterion of weak compactness of the convex set of all quasi-measure extensions of a quasi-measure, i.e., a positive finite finitely additive function, defined on an algebra of sets, to a larger algebra of sets. We also consider the special case of a measure and give some more conditions equivalent to the weak compactness of the set in question.